Ms. Williams,

Your partner, Mr. Allen, indicated the response would be filed on Wednesday morning or later that day. It wasn't, and so I followed up.

I have not agreed to anything, and the Tuesday morning email from your partner did not request my position on any motion whatsoever. Mr. Allen told me what was going on and said the response would be late; that's it.

To the extent you're conferring with me now on the issue of filing your response out of time, I oppose.

In the future, if your internet is down and you have questions or are confused about my position on any relief you're seeking, please call my office.

Thank you.

EMAIL RECEIVED FROM EXTERNAL SOURCE

Good afternoon Ms. Azar,

I hope all is well.

In response, I am confused as you'd agreed to the unforeseeable and exigent extension. We didn't perceive that you were awaiting a daily update as we thought it would be resolved each day all the way to the end of the day, so our apologies to you.

As you can see, I know have access and we are in the process of filing the Opposition. Apparently, my spacing misaligned as a result of what occurred technically and we are trying to resolve that issue right now so I can file the Opposition. We will definitely file it in. I'd actually added a footnote about what occurred, and that Plaintiff agrees to the Computation of County's time to reply commencing from today. I will leave the footnote and also now file a Motion For Leave To File Out of Time. Based on your email below I will note County's position as opposed

Thank you kindly, and have a wonderful day.

Good Afternoon,

I hope you have weathered the storm, Mr. Allen. Following up to the circumstances outlined below as I have not heard anything further on the matter and the response was not filed yesterday. To the extent you still expect to file a response to the motion to dismiss, I do object as it is untimely.

Should you wish to discuss, feel free to call me.

EMAIL RECEIVED FROM EXTERNAL SOURCE

Good morning,

Ms. Williams was in the process of responding to your MTD yesterday and last night and file the response; however, her internet went down, and she has been unable to get access of yet. Due to that technical issue, she was unable to file it, or send to me. Additionally, we had a severe thunderstorm in the Orlando-Ocoee area where I reside and my internet and power were both out for a while last night as well, thus, she would not have been able to send to me to file anyway.

She (we) will file the response this morning, or response later today once her internet has been restored. We wanted to give you the professional courtesy of an update. If you have any objections, questions or concerns, please contact her to discuss. Thank you.

Sincerely yours,
